

Job Vacancy

The Halle Institute for Economic Research (IWH) – Member of the Leibniz Association is seeking to hire a ### student assistant (f/m) for 40 hours a month

(starting December 1st, 2017)

to support the research group “Dynamic Discrete Choices of Individuals” in the Financial Markets department. The contract will initially be limited to six months, but an extension is possible.

Tasks

- preparation of microeconomic data on real estate markets and household finance
- support in empirical analyses using Stata

Qualifications and requirements

- secure handling of MS-Office applications, especially MS-Excel
- basic experience in the application of statistics and econometrics software, particularly Stata
- entry level experience in Python
- basic skills in finance, microeconomics and econometric methods are an advantage
- fluency in English (written and spoken)
- great care in handling records

We offer

- an excellent learning environment
- insights into applied economic research

Required Documents

Please submit the following documents in a single PDF file:

- motivation letter (max one page)
- curriculum vitae (short version)
- copy Abitur certificate
- copy Bachelor/Vordiplom (if available)
- copy of the university's credits
- copy of matriculation certificate
- copy of work and/or practical products (if available)

Application procedure

Please send your application including your resume and CV with evidence of all qualifications as well as a copy of your enrolment certificate in a single pdf file by October 30, 2017 to antonios.mavropoulos@iwh-halle.de, who will also answer your questions and provide any further information.