CALL FOR PAPERS

20th IWH-CIREQ-GW Macroeconometric Workshop: Micro Data and Macro Questions on October 29th and 30th, 2019 in Halle (Saale), Germany

The workshop provides a platform to discuss new developments in the field of empirical and applied macroeconomic modelling and aims at bringing together academic researchers and practitioners. We invite applied and theoretical papers dealing with time series and broad macroeconomic topics. Papers that explicitly cover the macroeconomic topics with microdata are particularly welcome.

Each conference day is opened by an invited speaker followed by contributed papers, discussants, and posters.

Keynote lectures are given by:

Marco Del Negro (Federal Reserve Bank of New York)

Frank Schorfheide (University of Pennsylvania)

The workshop fee for participants is EUR 130 (reduced fee for PhD students EUR 95). The fee covers conference materials, coffee breaks, the lunch break (Wednesday), and the conference dinner (Tuesday). Please note that all participants have to cover their accommodation and travel expenses themselves.

Information on previous IWH-CIREQ-GW Macroeconometric Workshops can be found here.

Please submit your paper or an extended abstract in PDF format along with information on paper title, name(s) of author(s) and contact details to: https://en.xing-events.com/macroworkshop_2019.

We assume that by submitting your paper and personal data, you agree that these information will be used exclusively for purposes of conference planning. The data and your paper will be passed to the scientific committee for the review process. After the conference, these data will be deleted.

The submission deadline is August 16th, 2019. Authors will be informed by August 23rd, 2019. Registration will be possible from August 23rd, 2019.
